Coursework Submission, Feedback and Grades

Talk Overview

- Preparation of Submission.
- Submission.
- Grade and Feedback.
- Group Coursework.

Preparation of Submission

Preparation of Submission

- You have to submit a single zip file.
- Start by creating a folder for your submission. This will typically contain:
  - Code in a separate folder.
  - Report
  - Video demonstration
  - Possibly a database dump.
- Other parts of the submission can be at the root of the submission folder.

Create Zip File

- When your submission is ready, zip it up into a single file.
- In Windows, I recommend that you use 7-Zip: https://www.7-zip.org/
- Free program that makes it easy to create and open zip files.
- With 7-Zip, you right click on the contents of your folder, select 7-Zip and Add to "FOLDER NAME", where FOLDER NAME is the name of the folder that you are in.
- 7-Zip will then create a zip file containing your submission.
- Check that zip file is correct!

GROUP COURSEWORK

Group Coursework

- Some of my modules have group coursework.
- Skip this section if your module only has individual coursework.

Submission of Group Coursework

- With group coursework the submission link and feedback link are different – submission and feedback are not in the same place.
- The procedure for group coursework is as follows:
  - One member of the group uploads the group coursework.
  - Teacher marks coursework using a spreadsheet that calculates an individual grade for each group member.
  - Spreadsheet is uploaded to the feedback section.
  - Students can see their grade and download the spreadsheet to see the feedback.
